

2007 MRS WIGLEY

Grenache Rose

WINE BUSINESS MONTHLY 100, Tyson Stelzer, OCT 07

90 POINTS

“Wirra Wirra’s pristine fruit and precision winemaking are evident across its entire range of releases this year. Ripe cherry fruit and squashy berries cascade over the palate of this new vintage rosé. It’s right on cue for another summer of quaffing”

TASTE FOOD & WINE 2008 Mathew Jukes & Tyson Stelzer

“Mrs Wigley is a cheeky soul, sporting rosy cheeks and a hop, bounce and a wob-ble in her jaunty little step! This wine is the same - ripe cherry fruit cascades on call, delightful squashy berries tumble free and cleanly scrubbed schoolchildren sing in perfect harmony when you pour this wine. In short, the world is a better place, thanks to Mrs Wigley.”

THE ADVERTISER Australia’s Top 100 Wines 2007, NOV 07

92 POINTS (Top Points)

“Bright pink and fresh faced with crunchy apples and just ripe strawberry aromatics that follow into the mouth with a good level of fruit sweetness balance with refreshing acidity and nicely weighted minerally textures for the clean and subtle summer pink.”

THE AUSTRALIAN Wine, Max Allen, NOV 07

“The pale pink Grenache rosé has more going for it than many of the other pink wines you’ll find in your fridge at the moment: it has really pretty raspberry and rosehip aromatics, with spicy, herbal, satisfying complexity.”

SUNDAY AGE Sunday Life, Sally Gudgeon, NOV 07

“A benchmark rosé from the McLaren Vale, which seems to get better each vintage. South Australia excels with Grenache-based roses like this. Enjoy its fruit and freshness.”
