“Sumptuous, elegant McLaren Vale shiraz of depth and character. Harvested without a hint of over ripeness, it’s wild, heady and very spicy, with a spicy bouquet of dark plums and berries, liquorice and dark olives backed by a whiff of currant and lightly toasty aromatic new oak. It drips with intense dark fruit that sinks back into a velvet cushion of fine, supple tannins, finishing with length, lusciousness and surprising suppleness.”

“...It takes some time to unfurl in the glass, but it’s rich and sweet-fruited and yum.”

AUSTRALIAN GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE David Brookes, MAR 10

“Luscious, deep McLaren Vale shiraz at its best. This one is a keeper with its rich, broody black fruits dotted with olive tapenade, spice and licorice with some very sexy oak shining through. Come back to it in about eight years’ time and it will be singing.”

“ Yummy oak matched to blueberried and boysenberry like fruit flavours. Smooth but not plush and more refined than alot of other top-end McLaren Vale shiraz. This is a nice sort of wine....full of stylish quality.”

“The essence of modern McLaren Vale Shiraz, RSW 2007 smells powerful with aromas of berries, plums, spice and dark chocolate. Some peaty, cedary oak influence could do with further integration on the nose, but in the mouth it works well with lovely richness and concentration, yet surprising refinement. It finishes with ripe tannins and a lingering chocolate presence.”
