

2008 SCRUBBY RISE

Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon Petit Verdot

THE MATTHEW JUKES

100 Best Australian Wines 2010 Matthew Jukes & Quentin Johnson

“Wirra’s mastery of all things red continues apace. Scrubby clearly gets a leg up from other, more expensive wines in the winery because the quality of fruit in this Shiraz and Merlot seems like the original three Musketeers in this wine such is their teamwork, laughter level and lust for life.”

WINEFRONT Campbell Mattinson, OCT 09

“This is a stirring return to form. Of course it’s more than just shiraz – it’s part cabernet sauvignon and petit verdot too. Fantastically affordable red to strap your lips around. Full of jammy, blackberried flavour but it’s the dusty, earthen, spicy notes that really get send the Slurpability Score soaring. There’s a modest amount of tannin grip and a sweet, Turkish delight-like flavour rippling through the aftertaste. A bonza red. Made to drink, now.”

DAILY TELEGRAPH Jeff Collerson, OCT 09

“This blend from SA’s McLaren Vale and Fleurieu Peninsula makes a great quaffer. Red and black fruits dominate, with hints of dark chocolate. There is plenty to hold one’s interest, with a supple, fleshy mouth-feel and soft tannins. Winemaker Samantha Connew used American and French oak to get the right flavour balance.”

WEST AUSTRALIAN Quench, Kerry Skinner, NOV 09

“A full soft and rounded shiraz-dominant red blend. Has loads of plum pudding and blackcurrant richness with some nice earthy licorice touches touches. Soft and generous mouth feel.”

BIG RED WINE BOOK 2010/II C Mattinson & G Walsh

Top 100 $20 or less

Authors Choice

Best of Red Blends $20 or less

...It’s full of jammy blackberried flavour but it’s the dusky , eaten, spicy notes that send the slurpability score, soaring. There’s a modest amount of tannin grip and a sweet, Turkish delight-like flavour rippling through the aftertaste.”

