

2009 MRS WIGLEY Moscato

THE ADVERTISER Indulge, Tony Love, JUL 09

93 Pts

“Fresh and fragrant new vintage.....with zing and all its typical musk and grapy-ness to begin, then an entertaining palate of lemon and lime, gingery beer nuances and a great tension between fine acidity and cleverly perpered sweetness. One of the better examples of the style in years – drink it while fresh, great with lemon tarts and cakes.”

WBM Moscato, Penny Boothman, JUN 09

“...Mrs Wigley Moscato has fast become one of the benchmarks of this style.”

THE AGE The Wine Pick, Huon Hooke, AUG 09

“I there is such a thing as a cake wine it is undoubtedly moscato – the light, slightly fizzy, semi-sweet, low-alcohol, muscat-scented wine that originated in Piedmont and is newly fashionable in Australia. It’s hard to go past...”

WINE SELECTOR Pink Is The New Black, OCT 09

“... is a delicate and deliciously fragrant Moscato. Low in alcohol and with a hint of fizz, it is perfect with any meal, especially breakfast.”

THE WEEK Breakfast wines, OCT 09

“A beautiful shade of salmon pink, this McLaren Vale Moscato has ‘just the right amount of spritz’. There are hints of musk and honeydew melon, while a “grapefruity acidity holds everthing together.”

THE COURIER MAIL Ken Gargett, NOV 09

“Quite floral with enticing freshness on the palate. A refreshing, mid-length McLaren Vale moscato leaning toward the sweet.”

GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE Three of the best (Moscato) DEC 09

“This lovely sweetie from McLaren Vale is right at the lighter end of the moscato spectrum, boasting only 4.5% alcohol. Ever so pale, ever-so-elegant...”
