“Light but bright hue; attractively weighted and textured wine, the red fruits of the Grenache complexed and structured by the darker notes of the shiraz; a totally delicious mine for early drinking.”

AUSTRALIAN HOUSE AND GARDEN Toni Paterson DEC 2010

“Lipsmacking raspberry and cherry flavours, enhanced by some pepper and spice, makes this wine a great partner for roast turkey.”

AUSTRALIAN GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE Huon Hooke JAN 2010

“...Raspberry nose seems unencumbered by oak, while the palate viscous from glycerol and is fruity, with floral and herbal notes. Very soft tannins.”

“2009 Wirra Wirra Original Blend Grenache Shiraz has attractive ripe, sweet fruit on the nose, perhaps lacking a little in depth but more than making up for that with fragrance. The palate continues the theme – medium bodied, supple, fine tannins and a lovely drinkability. Bickley enjoyed this too. “Black cherry, mulberry, dried spices and a hint of vanilla bean,” she wrote. “Fresh and lively, with great texture.” This was one of the best wines for easy drinking, so be sure to enjoy it while it's fresh.”
