

2009 HIDING CHAMPION

Sauvignon Blanc

THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN Cellar Notes, Ray Jordan, OCT 09

“Bursting with ripe tropical fruits dominated with distinct passionfruit crunchiness. Lively zesty palate with nice light alcohol. Fresh and lively enough to jump out of the glass and grab you.”

THE ADELAIDE ADVERTISER Tasting Notes, Tony Love, OCT 0991 PTS

Subtle tropical fruits and blossoms with a waft of lemongrass to begin with a sharp, crunchy red apple bite of flavour – even a zing of lemon sherbet with some fresh-cut herbs and basil aromatics in the background – finishing crispy.”

WINE BUSINESS MONTHLY, WINE 100 Tyson Stelzer, OCT 0992 PTS

“Restrained and structured, this is a subtle, honed Sauvignon with layers of minerality and a fine perfume of lemon blossom. It’s backbone of fresh, lemony acidity deeps it lively and textured quava fruit injects just the right amount of interest to keep things exciting.”

WINESWISSE Lester Jesberg, OCT 09

“Fresh passionfruit/grapefruit aromas. The palate is dry and racy with good length and acid cut.”

THE ADELAIDE REVIEW NOV 09

“This Sauvignon, made by New Zealander Samantha Connew, is sourced from Wirra Wirra’s Lenswood vineyards in the Adelaide Hills. James picked up ‘talc’ on its aromas while Tom found ‘mineral salts and citrus’ as well as something a little meatier and fuller. Intense, bright, citrusy intensity on the palate helped push it ahead of many of it’s peers.”

AUSTRALIAN GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE Huon Hooke, MAR 10

“This is a pale youngster with a nose of red capsicum and riper stone-fruit nuances. The palate is searingly intense with shrill acidity and fresh but delicate flavour.”

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION 2011 James Halliday95 PTS

“Has wonderful energy and thrust right from start to finish, aromas and flavours principally revolving around citrus and gooseberry, but with lesser intrusions here and there in Trott fashion; the vibrant finish and crystal-clear aftertaste are the best parts of a delicious, food-friendly wine.”

REVIEWS & ACCOLADES

2009 HIDING CHAMPION

Sauvignon Blanc

