

2010 HIDING CHAMPION

Sauvignon Blanc

THE ADELAIDE ADVERTISER Tony Love OCT 2010

“...a good rich berry core and smart mouthfeel.”

THE PENGUIN GOOD WINE GUIDE 2010 Nick Stock 2010

90 PTS

“Really bright and full of passionfruit and Tahitian lime; very fragrant and lively, with some gently grassy hints. The palate’s built on bright passionfruit and mango flavour; some stone fruits too, and a nectar-like finish.”

THE WEST AUSTRALIAN DEC 2010

“The fruit comes from the Adelaide Hills and produces sauvignon blanc that is more reserved on the nose than the gushy wines of Marlborough, NZ. Hiding Champion is suited to the light foods of summer with its gentle tropical fruit sweetness.”

WINEWISE Lester Jesberg DEC 2010

“Very much a full-on pineapple style which is very forward.”

WINESTATE DEC 2010

“Great tropical intensity, with gooseberry aromas and a palate that has delicacy and weight in equal measure.”

WINESTATE FEB 2011

“Really intense passionfruit aromas mingling with kiwi fruit and asparagus-like characters. Similar palate, with lovely depth of flavours and lively acidity.”

WINE 100 Nick Stock JAN/FEB 2011

“...a wealth of bright passionfruit and lime on the nose, really fresh, with gentle grassy hints in the background. The palate’s all about delivering bright tropical fruits and smooth texture, it’ll satisfy all comers this summer for sure.”

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION 2012 EDITION

90 POINTS

“The bouquet is crisp and clean, the palate zesty and fresh, with herb, citrus and mineral components well balanced, but little more to say.”
