

2006 SCRUBBY RISE

Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon Petit Verdot

WEEKEND AUSTRALIAN Top 100 Wines, James Halliday, NOV 07

91 POINTS

“...It is a lively wine with good fruit focus and intensity, offering a mix of well-structured blackberry and blackcurrant fruit and a long finish.”

TASTE FOOD & WINE 2008 Mathew Jukes & Tyson Stelzer

“The Cabernet and PV elements really pick this Shiraz up by the scruff of the neck and give it a damn good shaking. This is demonstrated by the lift and perfume on the nose, sleek palate, fine tannins and very long finish.”

SUNDAY TELEGRAPH Thirsty Work, Matt Skinner, NOV 07

DELICIOUS Drinks, Ben Canaider JUNE 08

“There’s a good intensity and complexity here. Ripe fruit flavours are kept in check, and the tannins don’t singe your tastebuds. You get quite a lot of wine for your dollar in this red.”

ALPHA Winter Warmers , Ben Canaider JULY 08

“Wirra Wirra make top-end posh reds, but don’t mind making more democratic wines, either. This is complex and rich enough, without too much hard tannin.”

THE BIG RED WINE BOOK Campbell Mattinson, 2008

“The good thing about this is that it’s full-bodied – I like medium bodied wine but it’s great to have a full monty option at an affordable price. It tastes of ground coffee, deli meats, blackberry jam and plums, and it keeps itself fresh and nice right to the bottom of the bottle.”
